Salvation for Unbelievers

Thank You, Lord, that You will hedge up their way with thorns, and wall them in, so that they will not find their paths. They will chase their lovers but not overtake them. Yes, they will seek them, but not find them. Then they will say, 'I will go and return to my first love (God), for then it was better for me than now.' Therefore, behold, You will allure them, You will bring them into the wilderness, and speak comfort to them. In that day, Lord, they will call You their Husband, and no longer call You their Master. You will take from their mouths the name of the Baals [their idols], and they will no longer remember their names.
Hosea 2:6-7, 14-20

I decree that they will confess with their mouths the Lord Jesus and believe in their hearts that God has raised Him from the dead, and they will be saved.
Romans 10:9

Thank You, Lord: You have opened their eyes and turned them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those sanctified by faith in You.
Acts 26:18

You will give them new hearts and put new spirits within them; You will take the heart of stone out of their flesh and give them each a heart of flesh. You will put Your Spirit within them and cause them to walk in Your statutes, and they will keep Your judgments and do them.
Ezekiel 36:26-27

Lord, this is the covenant You will make with them: You will put Your law in their minds and write it on their hearts; You will be their God, and they shall be Your children.
Jeremiah 31:33

I decree that they have confessed their sins. And Lord, You are faithful, and just and will forgive them of their sins, and cleanse them from all unrighteousness.
1 John 1:9

I decree in faith that they are in Christ, they are new creations; old things have passed away in their lives, all things in their lives have become new.
2 Corinthians 5:17

Lord, You are not slack concerning Your promise, as some count slackness, but You are longsuffering toward them, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.
2 Peter 3:9

Lord, because they will confess their sins, You will be faithful and just to forgive them of their sins and to cleanse them from all unrighteousness.
1 John 1:9

I decree that they will remember therefore from where they have fallen; they will repent and do the first works, so that You won't need to come quickly and remove their lampstands from their place—because they will repent.
Revelation 2:5

Lord, although they are wicked, I decree that they will turn from all their sins which they have committed, keep all Your statutes, and do what is lawful and right. And because of this, they shall surely live; they shall not die. None of the transgressions which they committed shall be remembered against them; because of the righteousness which they will do, they shall live.
Ezekiel 18:21-22

Thank You, Jesus, that even if their salvation looks impossible, You said that with God all things are possible.
Mark 10:27
